TO PROTEST REDUCTIONS IN SERVICE

Public Bodies To Formulate Action
Against Curtailment Of Transportation Facilities

A mass meeting of representatives of the Okanagan Valley Boards of Trade, City Councils, Retail Merchants' Associations, farmers' organizations and other bodies will be held in the Board of Trade Room, Kelowna, tomorrow (Friday), beginning at 7 p.m., to protest against the contemplated reductions in passenger train and boat service now under consideration by the Canadian railways. It is expected that the entire valley, which would be seriously affected by the proposed curtailment of rail and lake services, will be represented at the meeting. If the Board of Trade Room proves too small to accommodate the gathering, it is likely that the I.O.O.F. Temple will be secured.

Following revelation last week that transportation services might be considerably reduced, a flood of protests from Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton Boards of Trade and other bodies went out to officials of both railway companies. These protests will be consolidated at the meeting on Friday, when Penticton, Summerland, Peachland, Westbank, Wilson Landing, Fintry, Vernon, Salmon Arm, Armstrong, Enderby and Grindrod will be represented.

Early last week the Kelowna Board of Trade was advised confidentially that changes in the train and boat services were mooted. They were informed that a committee, for the purposes of economy, was considering changes along the following lines:

That services into the valley from the north be given by the railways on alternate days only, with discontinuance of the present passenger service and substitution thereof of a mixed train which the C.P.R. would one day run in from and out to Sicamous, and on alternate days the C.N.R. would run from and to Kamloops.

That the present boat services on Okanagan Lake be discontinued.

That Okanagan Landing be abandoned as a lake port; that the s.s. "Sicamous" be laid up; that a boat service be provided between Kelowna and Penticton only, with a launch service to take care of other ports.

That the C.P.R., being the first on the lake, be permitted to continue to give lake freight service.

That the transportation companies pool all earnings on traffic originating in the Okanagan Valley, division between the companies to be arrived at by the percentage of the total each has secured during a stated period of preceding years.

While the Duff Commission recommended that a committee be set up for the purpose of effecting economies in the operation of the railways, so far as can be learned the committee at present considering changes along the lines given in the foregoing is composed of representatives of the two railway companies and is not an independent body. The first wire of protest sent out by the Kelowna Board of Trade was addressed to the "Joint Committee on Railway Economics, c/o Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways, Ottawa." It read as follows:

"News received here that changes contemplated in railway service in this valley, substituting mixed trains for present passenger service and discontinuing passenger boat service. Submit this impractical and threatens economic life of Okanagan Valley. Recommend investigation by your experts on the ground before action taken.

(Signed) "E. W. BARTON, Sec., Kelowna Board of Trade."

Mr. Manion replied on Saturday as follows: "Your telegram received by me, but as this is matter over which I have no control, I am sending it to Board of Railway Commissioners for their consideration and asking them to advise you."

To date, the Railway Commission has not been heard from. Copies of the wire sent to the Minister of Railways were despatched to Mr. C. A. Cottrell, General Superintendent, C.P.R.; Vancouver; Mr. B. T. Chappell, General Superintendent, C.N.R.; Vancouver; Mr. A. E. Warren, Vice-President, C.N.R.; Montreal; and Mr. D. C. Coleman, Vice-President, C.P.R.; Winnipeg. The only reply received came from Mr. Coleman yesterday afternoon, as follows:

GAME OF TAG ENDS IN DROWNING

Kelowna Boy Meets Death By Fall From Wharf At Penticton

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rutten, of this city, whose 11-year-old son, Rae, was drowned at Penticton on Friday, when, while playing tag with one or two boys near the C. P. R. wharf, he presumably fell from the slip into the water. His body was not recovered until Sunday afternoon, when a diver brought it to the surface from under the wharf at a depth of sixteen feet.

The boy had been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Leo Peras, at Penticton, and when he failed to return home on Friday night police of Penticton and Kelowna were notified and a search was made. It was not until Saturday, however, that the children who had been playing with Rae told their story. They said that, while playing tag, their playmate suddenly disappeared, but they did not see him fall off the wharf.

Besides his parents, Rae is survived by one brother, Wynn, 6 years old.

The body was brought to Kelowna on the s.s. "Sicamous" yesterday morning. The funeral service was held at noon from the undertaking parlours of the Kelowna Furniture Company to the Kelowna Cemetery, Mr. G. Thorner conducting.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. J. Whittingham, Jack Jones, Tom Dugan and Harry Bailey.

BANKING COMMISSION ON ITS WAY TO WEST

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—The Macmillan Commission on Banking is today en route to Western Canada to open public meetings in Victoria and work its way east thereafter.

PARACHUTE JUMPER CLAIMS NEW RECORD

NETHERAVON, Wiltshire, England, Aug. 10.—The world record for delayed drop from an aeroplane is claimed by John Tranum, parachute jumper, who leaped here from a plane at an altitude of 27,000 feet and dropped 17,250 feet before pulling the ripcord of his parachute.

WARWICKSHIRE AND WEST INDIES DRAW

BIRMINGHAM, England, Aug. 10.—The two-day cricket match between Warwickshire and the West Indian team was drawn this evening after the West Indies had scored 474 in reply to Warwickshire's total of 367 for seven wickets, declared. The county had scored 48 for one wicket in their second innings when the game ended. The West Indian innings brought two fine scores. George Headley, the Bradman of the West Indies, scored heavily throughout his own innings, striking down his own wicket when a shoudbounding ball from George Paine hit him on the chin. He left the field in a daze and suffering considerable pain, but the doctors said that his injury would not likely keep him out of the test match against England at the Oval on Saturday. C. A. Merry scored a splendid 146 before he was stumped by Buckingham off Jarrett's bowling.

PREMIER BENNETT WELCOMED AT YORK

YORK, England, Aug. 10.—Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett motored here today from Harrogate and received an official welcome from Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress Rhodes-Brown. The Lord Mayor later accompanied the Premier to York Minster, where he was received by Chancellor W. Dewar and other cathedral dignitaries, and entertained him subsequently to tea at the Mansion House.

GLADSTONE PRESIDES OVER EISTEDDFOD

WREXHAM, Wales, Aug. 10.—The connection of the Gladstone family with the Welsh National Eisteddfod which has existed for many years was renewed today when Lord Gladstone presided at the principal session of the festival. It is recalled that the present peer's father, the famous William Ewart Gladstone, presided in 1888 at a similar event.

Owing to shortage of accommodation in the little town, the members of General Italo Balbo's flying armada were housed in Canadian National sleeping cars, both on their arrival at Shedin, N.B., and their departure from that point on their return to Italy.

CENTRAL SALES OFFICE INSTEAD OF CARTEL

Seventy-Five Per Cent Of Shippers Agree To New Measure For Stabilization Of Market

Shippers controlling approximately seventy-five per cent of the prairie distribution of fruit and vegetables have agreed to the setting up of a "Voluntary Central Sales Office," and an agreement covering the proposal is now being drawn up. While an Apple Cartel for 1933 failed to materialize, it is confidently expected that the deal over one desk, even if it includes little more than the tonnage now secured, will ensure a measure of stability for this season's marketing.

The press was excluded from the meeting in the Board of Trade Room, Kelowna, on Tuesday, at which the proposal was discussed, but the following statement has been issued to the valley newspapers by Major M. V. McGuire, Manager of the 1932 Cartel:

"At a meeting of shippers held in Kelowna on Tuesday, August 8th, agreement was reached by a number of shippers to the formation of a Voluntary Central Sales Office for the purpose of stabilizing the marketing of the 1933 crop.

"The proposal contemplates the creation of a Central Office through which all orders will pass and which will care for all collections. The deal is to be placed on a strictly cash basis and commodities will be pooled by variety or variety group, which will mean that the gross returns on each variety or group will be equalized between the shippers participating.

"The following shippers have agreed to join the new organization, subject to confirmation by their executives: Associated Growers of B. C., Ltd., Sales Service, Ltd., Crestland Fruit Company, Ltd., B. C. Orchards, Ltd., Crown Fruit Company, Ltd., McLean & Fitzpatrick, Ltd., A. T. Howe, Ltd.

"It is hoped that other shippers who were not in a position to make a definite decision at the meeting will give their support to the proposal in the interests of stabilization. All shippers will be invited to join.

"The proposal has the active support of interests controlling at least 75% of the prairie distribution, and every effort is being made to increase this percentage by enlisting the support of all legitimate wholesalers. It is further expected that the Vancouver jobbers will give their support to the deal.

"Preparation of an agreement covering the proposal is now under way. A committee has been appointed and it is expected that they will select a Manager in the next few days who will be empowered to proceed with the necessary organization."

It will be noted that the largest individual shippers who have not agreed to join the new organization include the Occidental Fruit Co., Ltd., Kelowna, and the B. C. Fruit Shippers at Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton. They have not definitely rejected the plan, however. There is no hope of the smaller shippers who refused to join the Cartel—Casorso, Rowcliffe, dePuyffier and others—entering into the agreement.

It is felt by some of the shippers who have not given approval of the scheme that too much power is placed in the hands of the jobbers, who will be allowed a "quantity discount" on a stated number of cars, which is of the nature of a rebate on sales. Two big jobbers have been lined up under the present scheme—Western Grocers and the Consolidated Fruit Company.

Major McGuire is the probable choice for Manager of the new organization. He served efficiently in that capacity for the Cartel, and no better appointment could be made to the succeeding body.

CANADA BUYS LESS FROM BRITAIN AND THE U.S.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—Canadian purchases from both the United Kingdom and the United States fell off during the first six months of the year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Exports to Britain increased by $17,000,000, reaching a total of $79,000,000, but imports from Britain dropped $8,000,000. Exports to the United States slumped from $94,000,000 to $68,000,000, and imports from that country also dropped from $48,000,000 to $39,000,000.

MACKENZIE KING TO MAKE NO PROMISES

WAINWRIGHT, Alberta, Aug. 10.—Declaring that the Bennett government is strangling Canada through tariffs and that Premier Bennett had won the election on promises, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, addressing a largely attended meeting here last night, declared he was not going to make any promises. The Liberal party stood to be judged on its merits. The Conservative high tariff policy was ruinous. The C.C.F. was really two-thirds Liberal, as the Liberals stood for the greater part of the C.C.F. platform, but Liberals disagreed with and never would accept the Socialistic proposals of the new party. The Liberal party stood ready to abolish Section 98 of the Criminal Code, which permitted deportation of individuals, even of British birth, without trial, on charges of unlawful assembly and of planning to overthrow the government.

AUSTRALIAN LOAN OPEN FOR ONLY ONE MINUTE

LONDON, Aug. 10.—An Australian loan of £4,500,000 was placed on the market today, but the lists closed within one minute. It is impossible to estimate to what extent the issue was over-subscribed.

Meanwhile, the Canadian loan, now on the open market, continues to be quoted at two per cent premium. The new Australian loan is guaranteed by Britain.

FARM PRODUCTS MARKETING LEGISLATION

Thirty Western Canadian Organizations Join In Request For Enactment Of Dominion Measure

The text of the resolution passed at the recent Regina conference of western Canadian producers of food products, requesting a farm products marketing measure suitable to the needs of producers of agricultural products in any part of the country, is as follows:—

"Whereas, after many years' experience in the marketing of farm products under the various systems hitherto used, it has been amply demonstrated that anything short of complete producer control is inadequate for the establishment of orderly marketing on a permanent basis; and

"Whereas attempts at bringing about complete producer control by voluntary agreement seem incapable of accomplishment; and

"Whereas in such isolated instances as producer control induced by legislative authority has been tried such enactments have been declared ultra vires of the power of the Legislature enacting them; and

"Whereas grave doubt has been cast upon the power of Provincial Legislatures under the B. N. A. Act to enact adequate marketing legislation, without first obtaining the necessary Federal enactments;

"Be it resolved that this body of producers representative of the major agricultural activities of Western Canada request the Honorable the Federal Minister of Agriculture to forthwith proceed with the preparation of a farm products marketing measure which will be available to and adequate for the needs of producers of all agricultural products in any part of Canada; that such proposed measure be submitted to a committee to be appointed from this meeting for review at the earliest possible date; and that, upon the said proposed measure receiving the approval of the said committee, it be submitted for final consideration to a further conference of producers which shall be national in scope, to be convened at some central point in sufficient time to provide the necessary support to ensure the passage of the measure at the next sitting of the Federal Parliament."

Thirty western Canadian organizations were represented at the conference. Mr. R. H. Macdonald, President of the Canadian Horticultural Council, was elected chairman. Among those present were Mr. E. J. Chambers, President, and Mr. O. W. Hembling, Vice-President, of Associated Growers; Mr. J. A. Grant, Markets Commissioner for B. C.; Premier S. F. Tolmie and Mr. J. B. Munro, Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

NARAMATA ROAD DEBATED BY ROTARIANS

Mr. F. M. Buckland Suggests Club Obtain Twenty-Five Year Franchise For Toll Road

(Contributed)

The Kelowna-Naramata road occupied attention at the luncheon of the Rotary Club on Tuesday, when three of the members were delegated to speak upon it, Rotarians Frank Buckland and Tom Norris in favour of the project and Dr. W. J. Knox in opposition to its completion.

Mr. Buckland, who has had a long and wide experience of the country through which the route of the road would pass, stated that recent surveys showed it could be put through for about $150,000. Advocating the feasibility of the project, he suggested that the Rotary Club obtain a franchise for the road for twenty-five years from the government, then get every member of the Club to invest $4,000 in it, charge a 50-cent toll for cars for the period of the franchise, and the investors would be well repaid by the end of the term. There would then be a through road which would always be open and would provide a highway for the thirty thousand people in the Okanagan, besides any tourists from the outside. Construction could be carried on during the winter and would employ four hundred men for a period of five months at, say, a dollar a day and board. Pick and shovel men would get $75,000, $22,000 would go for overhead, $20,000 for board and $10,000 for powder. The new portion of the road would cost about $100,000 for the required twelve miles, and $18,000 would have to be expended on the adjacent portions of the road now in existence. Maintenance costs would be very light, owing to the nature of the country.

Dr. Knox opposed the project because he thought it far more necessary to improve the present roads. Tourists from south of the Boundary expressed the opinion that B. C. had mighty poor roads as compared with those in the United States, and he believed that far more tourists would visit the province if there were better roads for them to travel. If the main idea of the east-side road was to relieve unemployment, he suggested that, instead, the unemployed be put on other roads, such as the Hope-Princeton. People on the west side of the lake liked to have the tourists travel past their properties. He felt they would be offended if any effort was made to divert the traffic from past their doors and nothing should be done to hurt their feelings. He considered that the rates on the ferry should be reduced greatly, at least cut in half.

Mon. W. H. Sutherland, former Minister of Public Works, had stated that the Naramata road would be open for only six or seven months in the year, if built, and it would cost between $350,000 and $500,000, as the whole stretch would have to be built right through to Penticton.

Mr. Norris said that, possibly because he was younger than the other speakers, he might be looking further ahead. Normally, he would expect to be here longer than them. He considered the road a public necessity and that it should not have been left over until times of depression for its construction. It was possible to do without the road and many other things, too, but that did not alter the fact that it was a necessity. He had spoken to Dr. Sutherland about the road some years ago, and the minister had then stated that it would be built. It was useless to beloud the question of the road by suggesting that its construction might offend some one. It was a commercial necessity, and no one would want to take a "dog in the manger" attitude. If the road was built, it would greatly assist the fruit industry in securing fruit for the making up of cars. People at one time said the construction of the C.P.R. was ridiculous, and the same opinion was expressed at the time the C.N.R. was being built into Kelowna. The government said it was losing money on the operation of the ferry and would lose more if the Naramata road was built, but it was not a case of the government losing money; it was a case of public necessity. Roads must be made to serve the public and they must be as straight and as convenient as possible. The figures quoted by Dr. Knox were for a route quite different to that suggested by Mr. Buckland, who had followed a new location that did not follow

FLEET OF BOATS ON BEAVER LAKE

Mountain Tarn Attracts Anglers From Near And Far

Over thirty boats were in use by fishermen at Beaver Lake on Sunday. Dr. Lipsey, of Edmonton, and J. B. Spurrier, who made a week-end tour of the Beaver Lake chain, returned with nine beauties, the largest of which weighed 9½ pounds. Fishing at Raymer Lake last week, the doctor, who is an enthusiastic angler, declared that the trip was well worth travelling all the way from Edmonton to enjoy. He found the fly fishing at Raymer Lake highly satisfactory.

Ray Corner and a Vancouver party captured sixteen trout at Beaver on Sunday. Harry Willis made a nice catch, and Fred Day and a party from the Coast were equally successful.

Mr. Watson, of Glenmore, and a Vancouver party spent a week at Beaver, where they caught their limit every day.

Washington anglers who fished Beaver Lake at the weekend included E. W. Bilknap and W. E. McHugh, of Okanagan, and Claire Ward, of Wenatchee. They secured good baskets.

Spurrier's prize for the week went to the son of A. Camozzi, who, fishing with his father, caught the limit at Belgo Dam.

Dr. Boyce made a nice catch at Chute Lake recently. Glad to see the doctor involved in angling activity.

H. Fairbairn, Carson McLeod, Norman DeHart and Dr. Lloyd Day are at Arthur Lake this week. They should find the fishing pretty good.

Dan McLure reports the fishing excellent at Speck Lake, where he made limit catches in two days.

Okanagan Lake seems to be in pretty good form. Henry Tutt, using a copper line off the Aquatic, hooked a nice bunch of trout, the king of them all tipping the scales at 10 pounds.

Ben Hardie made a nice catch on the big pond, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy, of Victoria, fishing from Chaplin's rocks with live minnow and fly, hauled in twelve beauties. They spent a week in Kelowna.

YOUNG WOMAN BECOMES INSANE

Provincial Constable W. J. Butler returned yesterday morning from the Coast after having escorted to the Provincial Mental Asylum at Essondale Mrs. Mary O'Kelly, a waitress at the Eldorado Arms, who went insane on Sunday. Miss McLeod, R.N., of Rutland, also acted as an escort, leaving Kelowna on Monday with the patient.

As far as could be learned, Mrs. O'Kelly, who is about 26 years old, came originally from Calgary. With her husband she went to Vancouver early this year, and, after spending a few weeks at the Coast, came to Kelowna alone and went to work at the Okanagan Mission hostelry. First indications of her mental condition were revealed when she tried to convert or reform the hotel staff along religious lines peculiarly her own. On Sunday morning, she became mildly violent and Constable Butler was summoned to take her to the Kelowna General Hospital, where she was held until Monday.

Insanity appears to be on the increase in the province. Constable Butler reports there are 2,200 patients at Essondale at the present time.

PRICE SAYS CANADA WANTS BRITISH SETTLERS

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Daily Express, in a dispatch from Glasgow today, represents Hon. William Price, Attorney-General for Ontario, as saying that Canada has room for ten million additional citizens and that the next generation should see a population of twenty-five millions in the Dominion.

The newspapers state that Mr. Price told his audience that the British Government at present gets no return from the dole expenditures for able-bodied men, but that, if these men were transferred to Canada, something tangible would result, land would be developed and at the end of three years the families taken to the Dominion would have something to call their own.

The lake level all the way as did the earlier surveys.

Visitors at the luncheon included Messrs. A. T. Howe, A. T. Lander and Max Ruhman, of Vernon, and Rev. C. G. Mackenzie and Mr. R. Whillis, of Kelowna.

TREE FRUITS DEVELOPING RAPIDLY

Volume Of Shipments Of Produce Gradually Increasing—Some Sun-Scald Showing On Tomatoes

(From the fortnightly report of the Horticultural Branch, Provincial Department of Agriculture, Vernon.)

Vernon, B.C., Aug. 5, 1933

Armstrong, Vernon, Okama, Okanagan Centre and Winfield, Aug. 4

Rather high temperatures were recorded for a few days in the week of July 24th. This spell was broken by thunderstorms on the 28th, which has moderated conditions considerably. The weather is still unsettled.

Irrigation is being applied freely and soil moisture conditions are good.

All tree fruits are developing rapidly, with tree growth normal. Cherries are almost past for this season, with apricots and peach plums moving freely. Another week should see the bulk of Yellow Transparent and Duchess apples moving, with Transcendent crab-apple into the picking peak.

In small fruits the raspberry crop is over the peak and blackberries should be ready in a week.

In some of the Italian prune blocks many trees look very sick with foliage curled and off colour. The definite cause has not yet been established but is possibly a combination of root injury and depredations of mite found infesting the trees in some orchards.

The first cover spray for second brood Codling Moth is now being applied; the next cover should follow in about ten days.

Kelowna, Aug. 4.

Apples are thriving well, and growth generally is good. Early apples, plums, peaches and apricots, etc., are being shipped.

Vegetables of all kinds are moving, including celery and lettuce.

Beans are now being canned, and the canneries are expecting tomatoes in about the middle of the month.

Codling Moth captures are increasing daily.

Westbank, Peachland, Summerland and Naramata, Aug. 2

From the 22nd to the 28th of July the weather was extremely hot. The shower last Friday night brought a lower temperature which remains. This condition has been rather hard on soil moisture in some locations, although no orchard has suffered so far. The reservoir water supply is now being drawn on.

The hot weather has brought along the tomato and cantaloupe crops splendidly. Some severe sun-scalding in tomato fields is reported.

Shipments of semi-ripenes are steadily increasing, and the first shipment of ripe cantaloupes went out on the 31st of July. Regular shipments should go out in about ten days.

FIRST BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE

Local Association Organizes New Society At Vernon

(By C. H. B.)

The Society enjoyed a splendid and interesting programme at their meeting held after the evening church service on Sunday. We were very fortunate and honoured in having as a special speaker Mr. Tabor, of Victoria. His address seemed to touch us all and was very helpful indeed. The Society enjoyed very much the presence of quite a few visitors.

On Thursday three cars containing members of the society set out for Vernon. Two arrived, the other having the unfortunate lot of being towed back to Kelowna. However, in spite of this handicap, the remainder had great success in stirring enthusiasm in the Vernon church young people and are very glad to announce that we organized a society. We are all looking forward with great interest to going up again on August 24th to give them another boost.

The Young People are kindly asked not to forget our meeting on Sunday night, at 8:45, and that everybody is extended a cordial welcome to meet with us.

GUILD OF HEALTH

Watching and studying your mind and its thought processes is one of the most important practices in which you can engage; for you soon will begin to realize your power to control and direct your thinking. When by persistent effort you have acquired the habit of shutting out all negative thoughts and feelings, you will more and more become conscious of inspiration from a high source making you aware of definite guidance and instruction. In other words, your mind now being emptied of selfish and untrue thoughts which are no part of your real nature, your higher mind will begin to pour in the consciousness of your divine self. You must always remember that spirit alone is and that you and all things exist only in Spirit—that is consciousness, nowhere else. Also what you think and believe, and thus hold in consciousness exists to you, and such always out-manifests in your life and affairs. Therefore, you must see and believe only the true and eternal things—the things of the kingdom, which your true self is waiting to shower upon you.

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

1st Kelowna Troop

Troop First! Self Last!

Edited by S.M.

Orders for the week ending Thursday, August 17th, 1933:

Duties: Orderly patrol for the week, Otters; next for duty, Owls.

There will be a patrol leaders' meeting on Friday, the 11th, to make arrangements for cleaning up the grounds around the Hall.

Every year at this time it seems necessary to notify our fellows that we don't want them swimming around or about the C.P.R. wharf. This year there has been considerable trouble with boys pilfering fruit and generally making a nuisance of themselves. We hope that none of them are Scouts, but since we have been approached to do our share in preventing this trouble, we are going to issue an order forbidding Scouts to swim there.

The hike to Terrace Mountain will take place about the 20th inst. The date and time will appear in next week's column, so watch it.

After numerous requests to hold a Bike Hike, one was planned for last week-end. A very enjoyable hike was held but the attendance was very disappointing, only four boys turning up. We will try and give a short account of it next week, but while we are on the subject I might say that, if there is not a better percentage turn up for the big trip to Terrace Mountain, we are not going.

During a visit to Australia of the German cruiser Kohn, Australian Rover Scouts acted as guides for touring parties of German seamen.

Participating as a Scout, Crown Prince Adolf of Sweden took part in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Scout movement in Sweden.

When preparing for an annual Australia Scouting event, the Easter campcraft competition at Gembrook, near Melbourne, the 8th Malvern Troop, famous for its camp cooking (a 100-point feature of the test), offered and loaned a camp cook instructor to the 1st Wesley College Troop, one of its chief competitors.

The summer's second, reported instance of a Boy Scout reviving an apparently drowned person came from Calgary, June 13. Patrol Leader Watts of the Sea Scout Patrol of the 10th Calgary Troop rescued a small boy who had been submerged some time, and by continued artificial respiration brought back consciousness and ultimate recovery.

In recognition of his "distinguished service to boyhood," the Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian Minister to Washington, was presented with the decoration of the Silver Buffalo at the annual meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Massey was one of the guest speakers at the banquet, and carried the greetings of the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF UNITED CHURCH

(By W. L. M.)

Mr. "Bill" Gaddes conducted an Oxford Group meeting at the Young People's last Sunday evening. The meeting was made as informal as possible. Chairs were moved so as to form a circle and the speaker kept his seat while speaking. Several of the Young People spoke and asked questions concerning the Oxford Group. "Bill" told of several of his experiences while in the Oxford Group and explained what the Oxford Group was, how controlled and a few of the particular words used. "Bill" hopes to have a group going by September, when a foursome from Vancouver is expected.

Rev. C. G. Mackenzie will address the Young People this coming Sunday. The meeting will be held in the Church parlour at 8:45 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend.

WOMAN GETS HIGH U.S.

Mrs. Marion Glass Banister, of Lynchburg, Virginia, has been appointed by President Roosevelt to the position of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. It is the first time that one of her sex has held such a high office in the Treasury Department.

WINFIELD

Mrs. R. P. White, with Mary and Nancy, are holidaying at Lavington.

Mrs. King and daughter have returned to Enderby after spending a time in Winfield.

Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. John Edmunds is in somewhat improved health, according to latest reports.

Mr. Dave Edmunds motored down from Lavington on Monday to visit his mother, who is at present in the Kelowna Hospital.

Spraying for the second brood of Codling Moth is in full force. Those examining bands on trees are finding quite a few worms.

The Liberal Association held a very successful and enjoyable concert and dance in the Winfield Community Hall on Friday evening last. Many have stated that this was about the best concert ever put on here. Quite a few people arrived from outside points, a considerable proportion of the talent being from neighbouring districts. It is estimated that the attendance was about 200 persons.

Dr. J. Allen Harris, the Liberal candidate for South Okanagan, and Dr. W. J. Knox gave short addresses.

During the evening tickets were sold on a cake donated by Sutherland's Bakery and on shortbread donated by Mrs. Wm. Petrie, which were subsequently drawn for.

The officers of the association thank all those who helped to make the social success it was.

The writer is unable to make a full report on the horse shoe pitching tournament held at the Lake Shore Inn, owing to inability to attend, but has been handed a list of the winners which is as follows:

Singles.—First prize, Silver Cup, Mr. Pollard; second, $2.75 cash, George Williamson; third, $2.00, D. Evans.
Doubles.—First prize, $4.00 cash, Swift and Rutledge; second, $3.00, Pollard and Gunn; third, $2.00, Everett and Duggan; fourth, $1.00, Veness and Wilcox.

This is the third consecutive win for Mr. Pollard in the Singles and it is the writer's understanding that the cup is now his property.

1ST RUTLAND TROOP

"Do A Good Turn Daily"

The Troop returned from the annual camp on Thursday afternoon, transportation being supplied by Mr. Harry Latta's truck and Mr. T. G. Chambers' and the Scoutmaster's cars. The return trip was made just early enough to avoid the heavy rain that fell that afternoon and evening.

The weather throughout the camp period was a little cool for enjoyable swimming, but very little rain actually fell while we were in camp. A great deal of work was done with tests and Scouting practice of various kinds.

A feature of the camp was the interesting rivalry between the Scouts and Okanagan Centre in softball. Two games were played, the first resulting in a win for the Scouts by 31-29, as reported last week. The second game was better played and even closer, the Scouts winning by 19 runs to 18 in a full nine inning encounter. On a good field both teams could have put up a much better game, but the gravelly grounds and many obstructions, together with the smallness of the field, made a fast game impossible.

During the full period of camp a patrol competition was run between the three patrols, the Beavers, Seals and Foxes. The Kangaroos only had two in camp and the Eagles two, these not at the same time, so these patrols were incorporated into the others for the camp. The final result of the competition was as follows:

Patrol	Points
Seals	505
Beavers	440
Foxes	390

Tests passed during camp were as follows:—

Tenderfoot (complete): Recruits Basil Bond, David Cumming and Ewald Dalman.

Second Class: Signalling: B. Bond, D. Cumming, C. Hall and L. Williams. Compass: B. Bond, D. Cumming. Scouts Pace: G. Smith, D. Cumming, B. Bond. Fire Lighting: B. Bond, D. Cumming. First Aid: E. Gibson, B. Bond, C. Hall. Tracking: B. Bond, D. Cumming, C. Hall.

Completed Second Class: Second E. Gibson, C. Hall.

First Class:—Swimming: E. Cross. D. Reid, B. Bond. Tree Felling: W. Urquhart, D. Reid. Training a Recruit: A. Wigglesworth, Second W. Hardie. Cooking: Second W. Hardie.

Proficiency Badges: "Swimmer's": C. Hall. "Camp Cook": Second W. Hardie, Second E. Reser.

The number in camp who were good swimmers was exceptionally high, and in another year there will probably be many who will qualify for "Swimmer's" badges.

During camp the S.M. had the assistance of Troop Leader P. Ritchie for the first three days, A.S.M. K. Bond for the last four, and Instructor J. Claxton from Friday to Tuesday.

The Troop wish to express their appreciation of the kindness and assistance given by Mr. Kennard, of the "Hermitage."

There were several enjoyable camp fires in the evenings. Quite a number of the young people of the Centre attended the last one on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid and family were also present and contributed a very welcome freezer of ice cream, which was disposed of in short order by the Scouts and their guests.

Another interesting feature was a night Scouting game on Tuesday evening, played along the lake shore about half a mile south of the camp. The Troop was divided into two parties, the "Smugglers" and "Coastguards." The former endeavoured to get through the lines of guards with a "valuable package," which was carried by only one of their numbers. The "smuggler" with the valuables got through all right but unfortunately lost the "package" in dodging a guard at the last minute, so the game was a draw.

Taking the camp as a whole, the outing was a very enjoyable one and all look forward now to next season's camp.

He said that in the forties a rich Bostonian built a fine house in the Back Bay. He decided to adorn the lawn with statuary, and, having heard of the Venus de Milo, he wrote to Rome for a copy. The copy duly arrived. It was marble.

FOUR CHANGES OF PICTURES THIS WEEK AT EMPRESS

"Rasputin And The Empress" Is Highly Spectacular And Dramatic

There are four changes of pictures at the Empress Theatre this week, the last two changes occurring on Friday and Saturday. The showing for Friday only features Warren Williams and Loretta Young in "Employees Entrance," and on Saturday Charles Ruggles, popular comedian, stars in "Melody Cruise."

"Adorable"

This new Fox romance with Janet Gaynor and Henry Garat in the stellar roles comes to the theatre on Monday and Tuesday. Miss Gaynor plays the role of a lovely girl who does the wooing and winning of a handsome soldier of the guard. Garat's role is said to give him a splendid opportunity for his American motion picture debut.

The supporting cast is a notable aggregation of character performers. It includes C. Aubrey Smith, veteran of the stage and screen; Herbert Mundin, who played the part of Bridges in "Cavalcade"; and other talented actors. The theme song, "Adorable," was written especially for the picture, which is tuncful.

"Rasputin And The Empress"

Unprecedented spectacle, a dramatic plot which reflects world history, and the most notable theatrical family in the world, the Barrymores, lend glamour to "Rasputin and the Empress," which tells the story of the fall of the Romanoffs and brings together, for the first time on the screen, John, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore. One of the most imposing lists of supporting players ever assembled brings an artist to even the smallest role.

Hundreds in gorgeous uniforms and costumes enact the pomp of an audience in the great throne room of the Winter Palace in St. Petersburg. Another brilliant assemblage appears in the spectacular cathedral scene. Replicas of these edifices, exact copies of uniforms and make-up to match historic personages, make these scenes faithful reproductions of the originals.

Two of the Barrymores enact royal personages, John playing the role of Prince Chogodoff and Ethel enacting the ill-fated Empress. The role of the Mad Monk, whose plotting is a forerunner to the fall of the Russian empire, is played by the incomparable

FERRY TALES

OLD BILL RETURNS

A leathery skinned old veteran of the War of Hard Knocks, his face bronzed by the sun and winds of the seven seas, stepped briskly aboard the lake transport just before she pulled out from the east side on her hazardous voyage across the Okanagan deep. Looking about him in the manner of one renewing his acquaintance with an old stamping ground, the grizzled veteran inhaled deeply of the ozone and emitted a faint exclamation of satisfaction. Then he proceeded to study the passengers with more than passing interest.

Leaning on the forward gunwale and gazing dejectedly at the water was a young man upon whom the eyes of the aged gentleman finally settled. They were puzzled, incredulous eyes, but doubt immediately gave way to certainty. The old man moved forward at the maximum speed his legs would carry him.

The younger man was attired in clothing that had obviously seen better days—and his appearance was not improved by the fact that he needed a shave. Contrasting the two, the old chap, while his clothes had not been cut by a Bond Street tailor, was more "prosperously" turned out than the other.

A great ham of a hand descended upon the back of the young man with such force that he was almost precipitated into the lake.

"Wal I'll be a son uv a sea cook, ef et ain't me old commuter friend—an' still a ridin' this here sea horse which ain't hed th' sense t' sink yit!"

The hand and the booming voice brought the man from Westbank to life in a hurry. Startled, he whirled about to face none other than Old Bill, his fellow traveller of years ago.

The old man grasped his hand in a grip that made him wince. "Wal, young feller," drawled Old Bill delightedly, "what hev y' got t' say fer yerself? An' how's th' wife and kids? An' how many more hev y' got now, y' young rascal?"

"Well I'm damned!" exclaimed the man from Westbank, when he found his voice. "Where the devil did you come from? I heard you were dead."

"Feller, do I look like a dead un—or do I look like a dead un?" was the old man's chipper retort. "This here ole carcass es good fer another hunert years. Arter th' fust hunert, a feller jist begins t' enjoy hisself."

The man from Westbank laughed. But it was not the laugh of a man used to laughing.

"Where have you been, Bill, you old dog? You certainly look as if fortune had been kind to you, anyhow."

"Fortune an' me es bosom pals. We've bin mating' up together here and thar. Arter we made th' fust million, th' rest come quicker'n y' kin say Jack Rob'nson. Yes, sice—"

"Just a minute," interrupted the younger man, "I am not asking you to call upon your imagination. I see you still refuse to recognize the existence in this world of a thing called veracity."

"Veracity?" The old man was puzzled.

"Exactly. Truthfulness. Let's have the story straight."

"Young feller," said Old Bill with dignity, "I tells my story the way I tells et—only I ain't goin' t' tell et. Y' kin tell me yourn—an' don't forget th' berclarity, er what ever et is."

The man from Westbank produced a package of tobacco and proceeded to roll his own. He refused the cigar which Old Bill proffered.

"What's happened to the deadly briar?" he asked.

"Wal," said Old Bill solemnly, "arter they jailed me in Tim-buck-too fer bein' a public noosance an' threatened to fill me fuller holes in Roosa fer settin' a bad example t' th' pro-le-taryat, I sold th' ole furnace t' a cannibal chief in th' South Seas. But tobacco didn't agree with th' pore feller—he jist died up an' died."

"You mean the pipe killed him. Well, thank the Lord I'll never whiff that again."

"Don't be so hasty, young feller," advised the old man as he produced a brand new pipe case. There, resting peacefully in its satin cushion, was the deadly briar.

"Y' see," Bill explained, "I couldn't leve me old pal with them thar cannibals so I snuck back one night an' took et outer th' dead chief's mouth. He hes plenty o' smoke where he es without this here furnace."

"But none as potent," muttered the man from Westbank.

Bill put his pipe away reverently.

"You bein' a fruit farmer," he said after a moment's reflection, "I s'pose yer about ready to retire on th' profits."

"About ready to retire on the losses

Lionel. Ralph Morgan enacts the role of the Czar in a make-up so skilful it seems a reincarnation. Diana Wynyard, of "Cavalcade" fame, plays the romantic lead opposite John Barrymore.

TORONTO SCHOOL BOARD HAS PLEASANT FINANCIAL SURPRISE

Accountants have been known to be short in funds when auditors go over their books, but affairs sort of went topsy-turvy when auditors found that N. H. Billbrough, chief accountant of the Board of Education, Toronto, had a surplus of $187,383.89. It is said, Mr. Billbrough built up the reserve fund for the board for use in case of emergency without anyone knowing it.

THE PARSON'S WET DAY

It was one of those wet, cold days. Gusty winds, and roads uncertain. The parson was driving home in an open car. Some papers were on the seat beside him. On a turn in the road a gust of wind lifted the papers and clouded the Parson's vision, just for a moment, but long enough for the car to run off the road into the ditch and turn partly over.

The Parson was sitting on the side of the road surveying the wreck when Constable Smith drove up, stopped, looked the Parson over and wanted to know how it happened. After hearing the Parson, Officer Smith in deep falsetto said:

"Well, Parson, I'll take your word for it this time, but I really should ask you to let me smell your breath."

is what you mean."

"I hear they hev a new 'lection party here now—the dee-dee-er er somethin' like thet, ain't et?"

"The C.C.F.," corrected the man from Westbank, "and I'm going to vote for it."

"Wal, wal," mused the old man, "turnin' yer coat, are yuh?"

"Why not?" asked the younger man sharply.

"Wal, sir, they's a adverb which says it ain't wise t' change hosses when crossin' a crick."

"What do you know about the C.C.F.?"

"Not a thing, not a thing. An' what d' you know about et, young feller?"

The man from Westbank proceeded to launch into a detailed exposition of the C.C.F. while Bill sucked at a cigar which he had difficulty in holding between his new set of false teeth. But before the young commutator got nicely warmed up, the boat hit the dock and sent Old Bill sprawling on the deck.

When he had helped the old man to his feet, the man from Westbank stooped and picked up a folded parchment which had fallen from the pocket of his companion. As he handed it to its owner he noticed that it was a government bond for $50.

Old Bill placed it in an inside pocket, recovered the cigar and stuck his thumbs in his vest.

"Es a capitalist," he declared, "et don't help my dignity none t' be seen with a sea heifer, but over at my man-shun I got a brew brewin' thet works on any kind o' brains a tall. Come with me, feller, an' see th' purty pictures."

The man from Westbank hesitated only for a moment. Then he shrugged his shoulders and followed Old Bill silently off the boat.

Another voyage was over.

SON OF GANDHI TO WED

Davidas Gandhi, son of the Mahatma, is to marry a daughter of Raja Gopal, former president of the Indian National Congress and one of the Mahatma's staunchest supporters.

RUTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clay and family, of Burnaby, B.C., are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Hardie. Mr. Clay, better known as "Mike," was at one time assistant principal of the Rutland School, and is now principal of the Burnaby Public School.

Miss I. McRobbie left on Monday by car for Vancouver and other Coast points, where she will visit relatives and friends.

The Girl Guides went into camp on Thursday last at Okanagan Centre under their Captain, Mrs. T. G. Chambers. They are to have the addition of a patrol of Guides from Vernon to camp with them.

The old fashioned "Shivaree" was revived in our midst on Friday evening, when a number of young people descended upon two young couples of this district in turn and made the night hideous with their noise. The newlyweds so honoured were, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Duggan and Mr. and Mrs. Don Duggan.

The report in last week's notes of the C.C.F. meeting was in error, the speaker being Mr. Hughes-Games, who gave a report of the Regina convention, and not Mrs. Herbert, who had been scheduled to speak. The next meeting is to be in Gray's packing house on Monday, Aug. 14th.

Rev. A. and Mrs. McMillan and their daughter Myrtle are holidaying at the Coast, having gone down by car early last week. There are no services at the United Church during the pastor's absence.

Mr. Dick Burde and his mother, Mrs. Burde, of Vancouver, left on Monday for home after a short visit to the home of Mrs. W. Gay.

There was another enjoyable dance in Gray's packing shed on Tuesday evening when some sixty or so young people of the district tripped the "light fantastic" until the early hours of the morning to music supplied by Wilbur Hill's orchestra. The occasion was taken to make a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Gray for their assistance with the dances. On behalf of the young folks, Mr. Peter Ritchie expressed their appreciation of the use of the packing house and thanked Mrs. Gray for assistance in making the coffee and otherwise helping at the dances. Mrs. Joan White made the presentation, the gift to Mr. Gray being a handsome four-point Hudson Bay blanket, while Mrs. Gray was the recipient of an attractive hand embroidered "luncheon set." The hostesses for the dance were Mrs. White and Miss Doris Schell.

A wedding of interest to young people locally took place on Tuesday morning, when Josephine Graf, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Graf, of this district, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Andrew Philip Kitsch, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kitsch, also of Rutland. The ceremony was performed at the local Roman Catholic Church, Rev. Father Jansen officiating, and was attended only by immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. A wedding dinner was held at the home of the happy couple left for a short honeymoon trip to Penticton via the s.s. "Sicamous."

Mr. Gilbert Burrows, of West Vancouver, is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bond.

Miss Dorothy Sullivan, who had been a visitor at the home of Mrs. W. Gay, left on Monday for her home in Vancouver.

Mrs. John Walls and daughter Jessie, of Moose Jaw, who had been visitors at the home of Mrs. B. Walls, of this district, left on Friday for their home on the prairies.

A new gas station was opened on Monday, August 7th, when George Lube's newly built service station commenced operations. The location is just north of Hardie's store, on the opposite side of the road, the lot having been purchased recently from P. Graf. Shell gas is to be sold and twenty-four hour service is available.

Mr. Tom Yatten, of Armstrong, was a visitor to the district during the past week, staying with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Granger. He left Saturday for Armstrong.

Miss Hilda Noble, of Calgary, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Noble, for the summer.

The Rutland Cannery processed a few tons of tomatoes this week, but the volume available yet is small. Beans are still being canned intermittently, the crop being too light to provide sufficient for a steady run.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the files of "The Kelowna Courier"

Thursday, August 7, 1913

"A dray team executed a lively run-away at noon today, running nearly the whole length of Water Street and eventually bringing up in Mill Creek. Although they travelled at great speed, little damage was done. The horses escaped without a scratch, and all that suffered was a corner of a municipal tool shed which was knocked off by the dray. The teamster, who fell or rolled off about the Bank of Montreal corner, suffered only a few bruises and scratches."

At a meeting of the City Council it was decided to make a loan of $4,000 to the Kelowna Hospital Society for a term of five years at eight per cent interest, the money, together with a similar amount from the Provincial Government, to be used for construction of a maternity wing to the hospital building.

WRONG APPLICANT

The minister advertised for a man servant in the local paper, and the next morning a nicely-dressed young man rang the bell.

"Can you start the fire and get breakfast by 7 o'clock?" asked the minister.

"I guess so," answered the young man.

"Well," continued the minister, "can you polish all the silver, wash the dishes and keep the house neat and tidy?"

"Say, parson," said the young man, "I came here to see about getting married—but, if it's going to be as much work as all that, you can count me out right now."

"QUICK, DOCTOR!" —AND THE TELEPHONE CALL BROUGHT HELP

"How's little Tommy this morning, Mrs. Franklin?" said Mrs. Green, her neighbour. "I understand he had a close call."

"Oh, he's much better now, thank you," said Mrs. Franklin. "He took sick in the middle of the night. Jack telephoned to Dr. Jones, who hurried right over. The doctor said it was a good thing we called him right away. If there had been any delay, the little chap might have died."

But the boy didn't die, thanks to the doctor—and the telephone.

OKANAGAN CENTRE

After a week under canvas at the Kuhlawa camp, the Rutland Boy Scouts under Scoutmaster A. W. Gray returned home on Thursday last. This Troop is always welcomed at the Centre, as they are a nice lot of lads and the young people of the village have enjoyed, especially this year, the series of softball games between a Scout team and the local players. The camp is occupied this week by a troop of Girl Guides from the same place, under Mrs. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Robinson and Miss Robinson, of Vernon, were the guests of Mr. and Miss MacLennan for a few days this week, coming down on Sunday.

Mr. F. C. Copeland has been a visitor at the Coast cities for the past fortnight.

Mr. D. MacLennan returned on Thursday last from a ten-day trip to Alberta, much refreshed by his holiday.

Miss Lucy Venables visited at the Westside at the Brixton home, from Tuesday until Saturday last week.

The concert and dance arranged by the Liberal Association at Winfield on last Friday night was largely attended by Centre people, who report the concert particularly enjoyable.

AID FOR THE NEEDY

The Dominion and provincial governments having "passed the buck" in the matter of relief, the City of Kelowna was forced to suspend any regular issue of assistance to the needy as from August 1st. The result is that several appeals have been made to the Central Relief Committee for help, but this time of year finds the Committee short of all supplies in kind and with its exchequer depleted. The City has promised to give aid in cases of extreme destitution, but the Committee covers a wider field and can use to advantage supplies of foodstuffs, vegetables, fruit, firewood, milk, discarded clothing and shoes, besides donations of cash.

With conditions as they are, most business men are having a pretty thin time of it at present, but, somehow or other, by dint of the exercise of some self-sacrifice, it is generally possible to provide the odd dollar or two for public purposes and to help those with whom the world is dealing still more roughly. If it is not feasible to give money, useful supplies will be equally acceptable.

As soon as arrangements have been made for the reception and storage of supplies, information will be published as to where donations in kind may be left. Meantime, cash subscriptions can be sent to Mr. H. A. Willis, Ellis St. South, who will furnish any information desired as to the work of the organization.

GORDON CAMPBELL VALLEY PREVENTORIUM

Cash Needed To Keep Open Until End Of September

Have you visited the Preventorium yet?

You should. Have you bought a membership ticket at 50 cents yet?

You should. Have you more fresh vegetables or fruit than you can use?

The Preventorium will be glad to have them.

Donations may be left at the Kelowna Steam Laundry office, Bernard Avenue, opposite the C.P.R. wharf, and membership tickets also may be obtained there.

During the past two weeks cash subscriptions have been received of $4.00 from Anonymous and $5.00 from T. A. D., besides generous donations in kind from Mrs. Francis, Miss Dykes, Bessie Garden, Mrs. Thomson, Mr. Goodison, Mrs. Haverfield, Mrs. A. J. Cameron, Mrs. Pease, Mrs. E. Anderson, Mr. Snowsall, Mrs. A. S. Mills, Mrs. Harden, Rennie Delco, Mr. and Mrs. Thorneloe, Col. W. H. Moodie, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Arbuckle, Mrs. Thacker, Mrs. Ootmar and Mrs. Ashworth.

To make the good work that is being done more effective, it is essential that the Preventorium be kept open until the end of September, but this can be accomplished only if the people of Kelowna will open their purse strings and send in just whatever they can afford. A big list of cash donations is wanted for acknowledgment next week.

PILCHARD OIL FOR POULTRY

Pilchard oil, which is produced on the coast of British Columbia, has been shown by work at the Poultry Division of the Dominion Experimental Farms to be equal to poultry cod liver

TO PROTEST REDUCTIONS IN SERVICE

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of copy of your telegram to the Minister of Railways. While the subject of train and boat service in Okanagan has been under consideration by the railway companies, no final decision has been reached."

The Vernon City Council, Board of Trade and Vernon Business Men's Association despatched the following wire to the Chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, Ottawa, on Monday:

"Press reports are to effect that certain radical changes in present railway and boat services of both railways in Okanagan Valley are contemplated. We vigorously protest against such changes as they threaten valley industries which represent large investments and affect very heavy tonnage perishable commodities originating here. Subscribed organizations strongly urge necessity exhaustive enquiry into local conditions and nature and volume of traffic before deciding upon any definite action. Would appreciate your assurance that your representatives will make prior investigation on the ground."

Proposed changes in the services, which would mean not only a backward step in the history of the valley but one detrimental to the fruit industry as well, may embrace suggestions not herein outlined, but it has been quite conclusively established that a serious curtailment of transportation facilities is under consideration. Consequently, it behooves every man whose welfare is vitally concerned to unite in strong protest against a move detrimental to this section of the province.

Kamloops Council Shelves Action For Week

Reception of the news in Kamloops is reported in the Kamloops Sentinel of Tuesday. Mayor D. B. Johnstone, in City Council last week, referred to the proposed curtailment of services with the following remark:

"This is a serious matter to Kamloops, and if it comes about it will be too bad for the C.N.R."

He asked the aldermen if they wished to take any action in the matter.

Up To Public

Ald. Shaw stated that the public could not expect the trains to run empty while trucks conveyed freight from point to point. If the people lost the service now operating between here and the valley, they would be greatly responsible themselves.

It was pointed out by Ald. Brown that the Great Northern was cutting down its passenger fares to two cents a mile in order to compete with busses and was now getting business. All that the companies had to do was to do likewise.

Coast Fare Prohibitive

The alderman declared that if a man could get a return ticket between here and the Coast for $10, he would not think of driving in his car to Vancouver and back.

Ald. Campbell pointed out that all over Canada there had been a demand for economy and a commission to advise on the railways had been appointed and they now had its findings.

His Worship felt that it looked as if Kamloops was to be penalized. Some locations must suffer, of course, but in more than one instance it appeared that this city would be hurt.

It did not matter how many resolutions were passed, interjected Ald. Brown; when officials from the railways came along they were able to show a different angle to it.

Can't Satisfy All

Ald. Williams felt that the railway companies were doing their best in a difficult situation. If a train left Montreal at a certain time to cross the continent, they might take it that this was to suit the majority of the people along the route. But it was impossible to suit everybody, of course, and there had been changes which did not suit Kamloops as well as previous train times. The alderman saw a change coming in the competing bus business, as under new legislation the railway companies could acquire all the truck lines they liked.

It was decided to table the matter for another week.

oil in supplying both vitamins A and D to the ration, and can therefore be used like cod liver oil when available. Vitamin D is the equivalent of the ultra violet rays in sunshine, and it is an essential point that cod liver or pilchard oil should be used at all times for birds in confinement away from sunlight. In considering these oils it is preferable to buy an oil biologically tested upon rats or chicks by the manufacturer and found to be potent in these vitamins. On the other hand, some cod liver oils are produced which, although they may be potent in vitamins, are so rancid and unappetizing as to be unsuitable for feeding purposes. These oils are usually produced by what is called the "sun rotting" process.

ORCHARD RUN

LITERARY THIEF

Business is picking up. I have Nobby Clarke's word for it.

Nobby, you know, is a neighbour of mine. His emporium is located right across the street from the Courier office. And in my hours of despair I gaze across at Nobby's Junk Parlour and reflect that so long as there is an optimist in the world like Nobby all is not lost and the C.C.F. still has a bitter fight to overthrow capitalism.

A couple of weeks ago some mean culprit entered Nobby's shop through the simple expedient of breaking a window. This vandal coveted something that Nobby had, and he got it. In this way Nobby was able to turn over some of his stock even though the deal was anything but profitable to the managing director of the establishment.

This incident gave Nobby the first inkling that business was picking up. But he was not fully convinced until Friday, when he discovered that two of Judge Rutherford's books were missing from his highly miscellaneous stock. One book was entitled "The Divine Plan of the Ages," but Nobby was not quite sure of the label on the other one.

So, says Nobby, business is picking up. "And," he mused to your reporter philosophically, "if the chap reads the Judge's books I'm darned glad of it."

OTERANL

This cryptic inscription was brought to me on a card from the Okanagan while I was in Vancouver.

I understand that it was.

HINT TO DICK

Were I anything but a pious man, you would have heard me cursing roundly last Thursday, when I neglected to put on my bathing suit before going to the afternoon Regatta programme. The wild waves took an immediate dislike to the press table in front of the judge's platform and proceeded to shower it in a manner most amusing to the spectators. With the wind working furiously to tear away my records and the water intent upon drenching them, I had an hilarious time myself. Once I thought of praying, but a breaker dashed away all my good intentions and rage grew in my heart. The only bright spots of the afternoon came when I saw one or two of the judges subjected to the same ignominious treatment.

Thursday's weather elicited countless I-told-you-so's. The Regatta is doomed to bad weather, say the sages, and history seems to provide foundation for the prediction. But I can not find it in my heart to agree. There is a way to ensure good weather. Equip all officials with raincoats, rubber boots and sou'westers, close in a swimming pool in front of the Pavilion and build a huge glass front for the grandstand—then, and perhaps not until then, will the lake be as calm as the water in your goldfish bowl and the Okanagan sun as blistering as Coast visitors expect it to be.

THE GREAT (?) CONTEST

The good people of British Columbia—all of them who are convinced that responsible government cannot be given to us unless they go to the polls to vote against each other—will exercise their prerogative sometime between now and November. So for the next two months all we have to do is lend an ear to the party, group or person whom we favour in order that our convictions may be further strengthened through repetition of things we already know—or don't know.

Of course—oh, quite naturally!—at this stage of the game our minds are open, receptive to any idea or thought that is broadcasted by Tom, Dick, Harry, the Lord and the devil. We are not necessarily Tories because we always have been, we are not Grits because our grandfathers were, we are not going to turn down the ambitious C.C.F. because we have never before had the opportunity to vote for socialism. Oh, no! Our minds are as capacious, as unprejudiced as the great body of statesmen we are to elect. We narrow-minded? Perish the thought.

Probably a great many of us would like to know what we are going to do on election day—and all of us would like to know what we will have done by the day after. Very likely it will be nothing revolutionary or startling despite all we have gone through, remembering that a provincial government cannot give us immeasurable prosperity when the rest of the country and the greater part of the world is poor—poor in so far as the welfare of the whole is

EMPIRE SETS LEAD FOR REST OF WORLD

GRANDE PRAIRIE, Alberta, Aug. 10.—Welcomed to Grande Prairie on his tour of Peace River with the Countess of Bessborough, the Governor-General stated last night that the World Conference had been declared to have been barren of results, but nevertheless it showed the nations of the Empire setting the lead for the rest of the world. Referring again later to the Empire, he declared, "there is life in the old dog yet!"

What a stenog can't understand is why, when she is such a treat for the boss's eyes, he should get so nasty about a few misspelled words and ball-up letters. So small minded.

NEW SCHOOL READERS TO WAIT BETTER TIMES

BANFF, Aug. 10.—Introduction of new readers in the public schools of the four western provinces will take place when financial conditions permit, it was decided yesterday at a meeting of the Inter-Provincial Education Committee here. The Committee consists of the Deputy Ministers of Education for the four western provinces.

"Let me kiss those tears away, sweetheart," he begged tenderly. She fell into his arms and he was very busy for a few moments. But the tears flowed on.

"Will nothing stop them?" he asked breathlessly.

"No," she murmured. "It's hay fever, but go on with the treatment."

It's better to be patient with the shortcomings of others and impatient with your own.

Fresh fruit and vegetables are moving out in fairly good volume. Crab apples and plums are moving well, apricots are being cleaned up and peaches are going out in small quantities. The pear movement will start about the middle of next week. Tomatoes are plentiful, but there is a shortage of cucumbers in this district. Onions are still green. There is a pretty good demand for potatoes, it is reported.

WHEN NOT TO ADVERTISE

Will a merchant who is wise, ever cease to advertise? Yes—when the trees grow upside down; when the beggar wears a crown; when ice forms on the sun; when the sparrow weighs a ton; when gold dollars get too cheap; when secrets women keep; when a fish forgets to swim; when Satan sings a hymn; when girls go back on gum; when the small boy hates a drum; when no politician schemes; when mince pies make pleasant dreams; when its fun to break a tooth; when all lawyers tell the truth; when cold water makes you drunk; when you love to smell a skunk; when the drummer has no brass—when these things all come to pass then the man that's wise will neglect to advertise.—Exchange.

THE FARMER

The Scottish Journal of Agriculture, issued by the Department of Agriculture for Scotland, says the following poem describes the position of the British farmer quite fairly:—

The farmer will never be happy again— His heart is right down in his boots; For either the rain is destroying his grain Or the drought is destroying his roots.

In fact when you meet this unfortunate man, The conclusion you'll come to is plain; That Nature is just an elaborate plan To annoy him again and again.

To some the above may appear humorous, says the Journal, but it is nevertheless true.

BWARE OF FAKIRS

Do not be too soft-hearted. Let no man go hungry who is deserving of a meal, but beware of the fakir and we have plenty of them in our midst and they are of many stripes. Beware of the old lady just out from Ireland who is selling hand-made lace, which in reality is machine-made and turned out at the rate of a mile an hour; keep a weather eye on the slippery individual who has a job to go to but needs the railroad fare; and then we have the continual canvassing of the boy and girl who is agent for numerous and sundry magazines, who quite often forget to place your name on the subscription roll. Give them all a wide berth.—The Cranbrook Courier.

When boys swim near the s.s. "Sicamous" or practice diving from the deck of the steamer they are inviting accident and risking their lives. Warnings have been issued in past years, but the practice continues to be carried on to some extent every season. Citizens, as well as C.P.R. officials, should co-operate to put an end to this dangerous pastime. The Board of Trade has been notified by Mr. J. J. Horn, Superintendent, C.P.R., Revelstoke, that reports have reached him to the effect that "children are swimming in the vicinity of the Sicamous and diving from her deck, a very dangerous practice." Before any accidents occurred, he said, he would like to put a stop to it and would very much appreciate the assistance of the Board.

MARRIAGE

Logie—Dee

A wedding of much interest to many Kelowna friends took place in St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, the pretty little church at the Gorge, Victoria, at one o'clock on Saturday afternoon, August 5th, when Rev. Canon Stocken united in holy matrimony two members of the Kelowna teaching staff, Miss Ethelwyn Dee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dee, of Ashcroft, and Mr. William James O. Logie, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. David Logie, of Vancouver.

The church had been decorated most artistically for the occasion with daisies and rambler roses. Mr. E. Parsons presided at the organ and, as the register was being signed, Mr. Charles Ozard sang "Love's Coronation."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful dress of peach stiffened chiffon with petalled puffed sleeves and petalled cap to match, and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, sweet peas and delphinium. She was attended by her twin sister, Miss Isabel Dee, of Duncan, who wore a frock of green organza, with large picture hat, and carried a quaint colonial bouquet similar to that of the bride. Mr. Ronald Fraser, of Kelowna, supported the bridegroom.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dee, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, 15 Lotus St., following which Mr. and Mrs. Logie left for the mainland by ferry on a motor tour of southern and eastern British Columbia. The bride travelled in a smart beige frock and tweed coat, with beautifully hand-embroidered hat and purse.

In addition to those already mentioned, out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. Logie, Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Frederickson, Mr. C. King and Miss Jean MacGougan, of Kelowna.

Everybody come and have a social time! Hot water will be provided. Bring your lunch and supper and forget orchards for one day.

The women were very interested in the instructive talk given by Mrs. Hopkins. They were also very glad to have Mrs. R. E. J. Hunt with them, and quite a discussion on women's influence in public life ensued. The next meeting will be at Mrs. W. Hicks', on September 5th.

A meeting of the Kelowna Local of the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association has been called for tonight in the I.O.O.F. Temple. President W. E. Haskins, of Penitence, and Vice-President T. G. S. Chambers will be the speakers. Among other things, they will discuss the Regina conference, which passed a resolution asking for a farm products marketing measure to establish orderly marketing under federal control. No form of marketing legislation was advocated, enabling legislation being desired in order that the various agricultural districts could enforce the control plan adopted.

was at one time solid rock. By a long series of chemical, mechanical, and biological changes it has been changed from the original rock into soils that now produce grain, hay, pasture, apples, potatoes, violets, and geraniums. Many are the influences which have operated in soil formation. We are accustomed to think of rock as being unchangeable, but very slowly and surely changes do take place. As measured in terms of the life of man, the soil is very old. It has been estimated that the formation of one inch of soil from limestone rock takes about ten thousand years. The processes which have changed rock into soil are still going on and now exert a very important influence on the fertility of our soils.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

C. C. F.

Glenmore, Aug. 3, 1933.

The Editor,
Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,
The editor has deigned to notice and to sneer at the Glenmore C.C.F. His remarks, although apparently intended to be crushing, really support what the C.C.F. has said. The meeting referred to was comparing Canada prior to a Socialist reform with Russia prior to 1917. There was no suggestion at the meeting that Russia had not progressed; it was merely pointed out that the problem of Russian socialism was entirely different to that of Canada.

Under the Tsarist regime ninety per cent of the Russian peasantry were illiterate. They were trodden upon by a callous, unscrupulous aristocracy, who reserved for themselves the privileges of real living. This aristocracy was backed by an aristocratic church.

In Russia there was no place for government by the people. There was no point of contact between the ruling classes and the people. Attempts by the Tsars before 1917 to establish dumas had failed dismally. Revolution, when it came, was bound to come violently because of these things and because of the lack of vision and unsympathetic attitude of the ruling class. Reconstruction was bound to be vindictive, long and hard fought.

Conditions were rather similar at the French Revolution. Conservative monarchist countries hailed the revolution as signalling the downfall of France. Yet France holds as high a position now as she did as a monarchy, with possibly a more contented people.

Russia offers a far harder reconstruction task than France did. In Canada we cite the fact of our great distances, stretching from sea to sea, bounded on the north by eternal snows and on the south by a great nation, as one of our administrative difficulties. Russia extends from sea to sea has a far greater land area and a larger population than Canada. She is bounded on the north by ice and snow and her southern and western borders touch many countries, some of them far harder to get along with than the U. S. A.

Yet, under these conditions, with a vast population to educate, with a new system of government to devise and organize, surrounded by hostile boycotting capitalist countries, Russia is the only country in the world to show an increase of production in the last few years. G. D. H. Coles, Reader of Economics in the University of Oxford, gives the following figures:

Production of coal in Russia in millions of tons, in 1913 was 28.9; in 1931, 58.6, and estimates for 1932 are 90 millions of tons.

Production of steel in 1924 was one million tons; in 1931 it was 5.4 million tons.

Taking the year 1913 as a basis of 100, real wages were 125 in 1927 and 170 in 1931. Retail prices increased by 105% over the period from 1913 to 1930, wholesale prices by 87%. Russia is developing while most other countries seem to be at a standstill. The Russian administration, although forced by world conditions to compete in a capitalist system, is succeeding where capitalist countries fail.

The editor has fallen into a common mistake of those who wish to refute an argument. The Glenmore notes read: "An insult to the intelligence and education of the Canadian public." The Russian peasant may have and probably has as much intelligence as the Canadian, but, owing to the oppression of the selfish Tsarist regime, he was not educated.

If the editor thinks that eighteen years is sufficient to educate a nation, may I ask what means his comment on our own system? i.e., "even if they can read, write and figure, few of them have received sufficient mental training to think clearly on questions of political economy." This of our system, developed under capitalist control with parents, with high class child literature and specialists in education. The Russian educationists had to start from scratch. No teachers, no schools, no books, and a background of illiteracy. One wonders whether the editor himself is not a product of the system he comments upon.

The progress of the Soviet government has been seriously hindered by capitalist countries attempting to protect investments. Its racial policy is even more complicated than our own. Under such conditions it is remarkable that Russia has progressed at all.

The editor probably has some inside knowledge on Russian intelligence, determining individual intelligence. We would like to know on what the editor bases his statement: "Men of a high order of intelligence such as Lenin, Trotsky, Stalin and others, beside whom Woodsworth, MacInnis and others of their ilk measure as intellectual dwarfs." The "ilks," I suppose, include Professor Frank Scott, of McGill, Judge Stubbs and Professor J. King Gordon, of Montreal. Possibly personal acquaintance with the men mentioned in long study of their work and writings brings the editor to his conclusions.

One would also be interested to learn whether in the last paragraph of the editorial the editor is perhaps quoting from some Conservative source. The sentiments expressed are so exactly those of a good old British Tory of 1832. May one ask, did a period of terrorism ensue in England when the vote was given to a gradually increasing number of people in 1832, 1867, 1884, 1918? Did giving the vote to the masses cause the state's downfall? Did even the flapper vote upset the state? In all these movements the old Tories (to whom "to think is to die") cried that the state would end. Yet England has gone from strength to strength.

In Canada there is a new movement, of a different character. It strikes at the roots of the old Tory beliefs. It would oust a ruling class. The Tory brains, used to sliding around in the old grooves, cry out with the pain of grasping new ideas. "This must be wrong. It cannot be true because it's not what I believe, or my father or grandfather believed."

She says she cannot only paint the strange Welsh words, but can also read and write them, which is an accomplishment in itself.

The medieval church saw in heresy the ruin of the world. A decadent church could not at first adapt itself to new ideas of Protestantism. Burning was the punishment for obdurate heretics. Heresy had to be stamped out or the world was lost. No man to-day will say that the Anglican, United, Methodist or other churches spell ruin to the world. The Wesleys, Thomas More, Erasmus and other Protestant leaders are recognized as world famous. None will deny that these men and these churches have served the world, least of all the modern Roman Catholic Church.

At every reform movement numerous die-hards cry, "Death to reform. I am comfortable; why disturb me with tales of my fellow-men's suffering? If he had worked as hard as I have—and so on." Throughout the ages reform has triumphed despite often reference to die-hards. With all due deference to editorial prayers, may I be allowed to prophesy that it will succeed again.

Thanking you for publication space.
Yours truly,
FRANK SNOWSELL,
Glenmore Correspondent.

(EDITORIAL NOTE.—It is very regrettable that our Glenmore correspondent has seen fit to introduce personalities in his assault upon the editorial published in last week's issue. He accuses us of sneering at him, while the only reference to him was contained in the five opening words, "According to our Glenmore correspondent," which surely are innocuous enough, and we do not intend to follow his example.

Mr. Snowsell now says that the Glenmore members of the C.C.F. were comparing Canada with Russia prior to 1917. If so, why was the present tense used in his report of the meeting, in which he stated: "In Russia, probably 90 per cent of the people ARE illiterate and HAVE no idea of self-government or self-control." (The capitals are ours.)

As a matter of fact, the figure of 90 per cent is an exaggeration, even in regard to the period preceding the revolution of 1917. According to the Russian census of 1897, twenty years before the revolution, the number of illiterates varied from 89.2 to 44.9 per cent of the population in rural districts and from 63.6 to 37.2 per cent in urban communities, so that the average figure of illiteracy was very much lower than 90 per cent. Progress was made, if slowly, even under the imperial regime. In 1885, there was only one primary school for every 2,665 inhabitants and one pupil for every 48 inhabitants. By 1898, there was one school for every 1,643 inhabitants and one pupil for every 31 inhabitants. Imperial re-education in 1902 and 1903 provided for a reorganization of secondary education, and the unsuccessful revolution of 1905 gave the government such a shock that a more liberal policy in regard to education was inaugurated, the total grants from the State exchequer for education of all grades amounting to $40,500,000 in 1906.

The ignorance of the Russian people as regards the bulk of their population, which leaves the elementary schools as soon as the law permits to go to work, and that the danger exists in Canada, just as in Russia in 1917, of a social revolution, initiated by radicals of peaceful views and opposed to bloodshed, getting out of control and turning into terrorism.

Mr. Snowsell points out that no period of terrorism followed such a period in Britain as extension of the franchise and bestowal of the suffrage upon women. But the comparison is a shallow one. These did not change the whole form of government in the C.C.F. proposes a revolution in Canada. There has been no real revolution in England since the days of the Commonwealth, and yet he says, "England has gone from strength to strength." The country seems to be getting along fairly well under a capitalist form of government and mainly Conservative at that, simply because its democrats have had the wisdom to institute many reforms and betterments of social legislation, which Canada does not possess, without upsetting the whole social fabric and endeavouring to create a new Utopian order of things at one swoop.)

Rutland, B.C.,
Aug. 7, 1933.

To the Editor,
Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,

In reference to the complimentary things which the Glenmore C.C.F. have been saying about the Russian people, their illiteracy, for one thing, I would like to point out to these C.C.F.'s that, if their own education, whatever the extent of it, has only brought them to their present way of thinking, they themselves might just as well be illiterate. Also, as regards lack of self-control, which they have affirmed to be one of the contemptible Russians' weak points, I would like again to point out that it is this very lack of self-control which is at the bottom of the whole trouble.

If circumstances today are all wrong, well, man himself makes the circumstances, so it's the man who is wrong, and he has only himself to blame. Man, as the embodiment of self, thinks and acts for himself, alone, at all times. There is nothing wrong with this; there can't be. God has made him so. The trouble is that man will persist in thinking and acting for himself much more than he need. Christianity has been trying for two thousand years to persuade him to subdue this excessive egotism of his, apparently with little success—aren't we all here, as we are, to show it? Can the C.C.F.'s do any better? And, if so, how? In Russia, it would seem, Christianity has been shelved—which is not necessarily the same thing as putting God on the shelf, for a man may continue to believe in the Absolute without being a Christian—and the leaders of the Russian movement having decided, apparently, that Christianity has failed, are now trying compulsion. Well, if love itself can't do the business, what else is there left to try but compulsion?

I have every sympathy with the C.C.F.'s, for I know full well that their hearts are bleeding for humanity, and I feel sure that the Russian leaders are feeling exactly the same way about it, so they have my sympathy too.

If the Russian leaders are endowed with intellects far superior to their own (as no one can deny) the C.C.F.'s must admit that these leaders do know something about it, and, if they admit this, prove, please, that they, the C.C.F.'s themselves, know very little about it.

Possibly a few of the C.C.F.'s, if they read this letter, will be inclined to throw it aside because they don't understand it. I advise them not to do that, but to go on expanding their intellects—not too much, though, they must be very careful about that, because if they keep on expanding them, they might, who can say? one day find themselves thinking exactly as the Russian leaders are thinking today, and of course that would never do. But, expand them just enough to take this little letter in, and, if they agree with it, then drop their paper scheme (for a time, anyway, for there are already plenty of men crowded into the political arena as it is, without their barging in and making it more difficult to move around) and give a strong hand to Christianity and see what can be done with man himself in the matter of restraining his excessive egotism.

One day, who knows? Christianity may be successful and then, of course, an excellent re-organization of society would follow as a natural consequence. And then, of course, the C.C.F.'s could throw this paper scheme of theirs into the fire.

Finally, I would say to Mr. Latta—who has a penchant for speaking in parables—that there is one necessary ingredient in any socialistic cake, however well it be made, that will always tend to make it thoroughly indigestible—the element of humanity.

Yours truly,
E. H. EMMENS.

Kelowna, August 7th, 1933.

The Editor,
The Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,

The Courier has been good enough recently to report the various meetings of the C.C.F. and offer certain criticisms on the policy advocated and the possible outcome thereof. As these criticisms appear to be based upon a complete misapprehension of the aims and objects of the Federation, I have been asked by the Executive Committee to place before your readers the following extracts from the platform and manifesto as adopted by the Reginald Convention, the following are taken from the preamble:

The C.C.F. is a federation of organizations whose purpose is the establishment in Canada of a Cooperative Commonwealth in which the principle of regulating production, distribution and exchange will be the supplying of human needs and not the making of profits.

The present order is marked by glaring inequalities of wealth and opportunity, by chaotic waste and instability, and in an age of plenty it condemns the great mass of the people to poverty and insecurity. Power has become more and more concentrated into the hands of a small irresponsible minority of financiers and industrialists and to their predatory interests the majority are habitually sacrificed.

This social and economic transformation can be brought about by political action, through the election of a government inspired by the ideal of a Cooperative Commonwealth and supported by a majority of the people. We do not believe in change by means of violence. We consider that both the old parties in Canada are the instruments of capitalist interests and cannot serve as agents of social reconstruction, and that, whatever the superficial differences between them, they are bound to carry on government in accordance with the dictates of the big business interests who finance them.

The fourteen points of the platform as adopted follow:

1. Planning. The establishment of a planned, socialized, economic order to make possible the most efficient development of the natural resources and the most equitable distribution of the national income.

2. Socialization of Finance. Socialization of all financial machinery—banking, currency, credit, and insurance, to make possible the effective control of currency, credit and prices

STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT THAT FAILED

This is the gondola of the giant balloon with which Lieut.-Commander T. G. Settle made an attempt on August 5th, at Chicago, to ascend to the stratosphere in an effort to achieve a greater height above the earth than that reached last year by Professor Piccard. A faulty hydrogen valve brought the projected voyage to a rapid end, the balloon, after rising to a maximum height of five thousand feet, descending quickly. Settle, who was alone, was uninjured, and may repeat the attempt later.

CRICKET

Coast Invasion Of Okanagan

The Con Jones Cup, emblematic of the Pacific Coast championship, is at last enjoying a change from the sea air, thanks to the recent success at Vancouver of the Okanagan Valley XI. It is reported, however, that, up to the present time, it has not found life in the Dry Belt particularly arid.

The Okanagan is not going to be allowed to rest on its laurels as the Coast has already begun an invasion of the Interior. The first team to make the tour, thanks to Bob Quinn and other supporters of the game at Vancouver, is the Vancouver Juniors, who are battling here this afternoon with the Kelowna Juniors. The Coast team is comprised of boys only, aged around 15, and they have amongst them many promising players and will no doubt exhibit a good brand of cricket. They have played Kamloops, Salmon Arm and Vernon on their present tour.

The Kelowna XI has been selected from the following boys: Mickey Stirling, Len Hill, Tim Hill, Damer Verity, George Wilson, Tony Agar, Nigel Taylor, Rex Carey, Brian Bell and Monty Ingram, with Mr. Alan Crichton and Tuppy Agar in support. Mr. George Tutt is umpiring the game.

Tomorrow (Friday) an all-star eleven selected from the junior players of the valley will meet the Coast boys at Vernon.

The B. C. Cricket Association is sending a strong senior team from Vancouver to tour the Interior during the week of August 13th to 18th. This aggregation will play Kamloops on August 15th, Langford at Vernon on August 16th, Vernon on the 17th, Kelowna on the 18th, and a representative Okanagan Valley team at Vernon on the 19th. The Vancouver team will be composed of the following well-known British Columbia players: M. Limon, Arthur Smith, Tom Smith, S. Gardiner, Charles Irving, George Berridge, Arthur Salt, Jr., Norman Pearson, H. H. Flowerdew and Arthur Leighton. Pearson and Arthur Salt, Jr., are two outstanding young players, the former being one of the best batsmen in senior cricket and a fine fielder.

The Kelowna XI selected to play here on August 18th is as follows: Percy Barnett, Colin Dunlop, H. Johnson, W. B. Bredin, A. K. Loyd, Derry Oliver, A. R. Willan, G. Buck, H. Creece, T. Matthews and H. Agar. Reserves: Verity, Greenland, Sutton, Kitson. This is possibly a stronger aggregation than the Okanagan XI which won the championship at Vancouver last month.

THE RIFLE

High Scoring At 500 Yards

Although the teams for the Bulloch-Lade competition, to be held next Sunday, were not as fully represented as was desirable to secure beneficial practice, there was a fairly good turn-out of riflemen on the Glenmore range on Sunday. The conditions were practically a repetition of those of the previous practice, with intensely bright light and a strong mirage, which cut down the scoring at 200 and 600 yards but not at 500 yards, at which distance no fewer than eight of the fourteen riflemen who shot at that distance made 30 or over. At 200 yards, no one reached 30, and at 600 J. R. Conway was the only marksman who reached and passed that mark with 31. He also tallied 31 at 500 and headed the aggregate for the day with the nice total of 91.

At 500 yards, J. C. Martin headed the list with a near-possible 34, his only shot out of the bullseye being his third. G. N. Kennedy and young W. Wilson trailed him closely with a fine 33 each, and B. Chichester, shooting with a strange rifle for the first time, put on 32. Next followed Conway's 31 and then came E. L. Adam, C. R. Downing and G. C. Rose, with 30 each.

Various rifles were tried out but in cases where a riflemen shot more than once his highest scores only are given. Detailed scores (200, 500 and 600 yards and total):

J. R. Conway, 29, 31, 31—91; J. C. Martin, 29, 34, 26—89; G. C. Rose, 28, 30, 28—86; E. L. Adam, 29, 30, 27—86; G. N. Kennedy, 24, 33, 26—83; J. Calder, 26, 28, 28—82; H. McCall, 24, 25, 28—77; D. McMillan, 22, 28, 27—77; C. R. Downing, 26, 30, 16—72; P. Smith, 20, 25, 21—66; W. Harvey, 16, 25, 24—65; J. Alexander, 22, 20, 22—64.

Shot at 200 and 500 yards only: W. Wilson, 25, 33—58; B. Chichester, 25, 32—57.

Shot at 200 yards only: D. Sexsmith, 12.

The team to represent the valley at Vernon on August 19th will be captained by Percy Barnett and will include from Kelowna Bredin, Johnson, Oliver and Agar. If Vancouver carries off the honours there will be no alibis.

AQUATIC RIPPLES

Rowing Events Abandoned At Regatta Were Run Off Sunday

The Regatta is a thing of the past, but memories linger on—and what memories! Kelowna has never seen such magnificent swimming and diving as was seen this year, and it is hoped that this high class standard will be maintained in future years.

On Sunday morning the rowing and war canoe events which had to be cancelled on Thursday owing to the rough water were completed.

In the mixed doubles lapstreak, the crew of Frances Lewers and Max Oakes won from E. McDonald and Len Hill in a good race, while the mixed four-oared lapstreak was won by a crew composed of Barbara Brown, Howard Ryan, Gordon Lewers, Frances Lewers, who ran out about a half a length ahead of a crew composed of Dot Taggart, M. Oakes, M. Young and E. McDonald.

The ladies war canoe was won by the K.G.E. crew, who defeated the Rowing Club lassies by about half a length.

There are still some novelty races to be run off yet, and these will take place on August 20th, when the committee have decided to put on the Club Regatta, at which many novelty events will be staged as well as the general line of aquatic sports. Full details will be published in next week's column.

Several members are going to Chelan to take in the Regatta at that centre this Saturday and Sunday. It is hoped to send some five or six swimmers and divers, as well as two rowing crews.

Several local swimmers are also attending the Regatta at Penticton today.

BASEBALL

Vernon Defeats Kelowna

On Sunday last the local nine took a sound drumming from Vernon in an Interior League game 16-7.

Vernon did their clotting in the second and eighth innings, when they gathered six and eight runs respectively in these innings. The locals gathered five of their runs in the third inning, but after that they could do nothing with Urquhart's and Sparrow's deliveries.

Next Sunday will see the last home game of the locals, when Kamloops will be here to play at 3 p.m.

The first car of new wheat of this season's crop to be shipped over the Canadian National lines in Manitoba was loaded on August 1st at St. Jean, with Port Arthur as its destination.

TREE FRUITS DEVELOPING RAPIDLY

Cherries are cleaned up; apricots (at their peak this week) and early apples are coming in in quantity.

Peach Plums and some early peaches are moving slowly as yet, also a few crab-apples that have size and colour. Triumph peaches will be ready in a few days; Rochesters will not be ready until the middle of the month.

The third cover spray for Codling Moth will commence the first of next week.

Penticton, Kaledon, Oliver, Osoyoos, Keremeos, Aug. 2

During the past two weeks the weather has been very hot and dry. Cantaloupes are now moving in increasing quantities and will be moving in car lots shortly. Every effort is being made to put this product on the market in first-class condition and an experienced fieldman is employed again this year for the purpose.

Semi-ripe tomatoes and cucumbers are moving in considerable volume from the Oliver-Osoyoos district.

Apricots, early plums, peaches and early apples, are moving from the Penticton district.

Kootenay and Arrow Lakes, Aug. 1

The weather has been very warm during the past two weeks, the temperature reaching 99 degrees on several days. A heavy rain occurred on Saturday morning, July 29th, and the temperature has turned somewhat cooler.

Crops on the whole are growing well. The picking of Royal Annes and Bings has been completed and the Lamberts are now in full swing, and it is expected the cherry crop will be over by the 10th to 12th of August. There are heavy shipments of raspberries this week, and this crop will be over about the same time as the cherries.

Harvesting of timothy and clover is over, and the crop has been quite good in most sections. Second cutting of alfalfa is now on and should be completed this week.

The apple crop is sizing fair to good and on the whole quite clean where proper spraying has been carried out.

Growers are supplying all local demands for vegetables. Sweet corn and field tomatoes, local grown, will be on the market in fair quantities by the 12th to 15th.

A fair to good crop of peaches will be shipped from Deer Park and Renata, but the apricot crop will be very light. Grand Forks, Aug. 2

The district has experienced a hot spell for the past ten days, the hottest this year to date. All crops under irrigation are growing well and maturing rapidly.

Small fruits are almost cleaned up, the local raspberry crop being of good quality this season.

Early potatoes and early vegetables are moving out very well, and the quality is good this year. Heavy yields of potatoes, onions and all vegetables are indicated.

Tree fruits are sizing up well and colouring rapidly. Thinning is about completed, and the damage from Codling Moth is not likely to be heavy this season. The fruit crop this year gives promise of being the heaviest since 1928.

Cutting of fall sown grains is now under way and in some cases threshing has been completed. Quality and yields were good, although the extremely dry weather will affect the spring sown cereals to some extent.

Creston, Aug. 1

Lambert cherries and raspberries are now about finished. Cherries were short of the demand; practically the whole crop went out L.C.L. Four carloads of raspberries were shipped and one mixed with cherries, after pre-cooling at Wynndel.

Irrigation, which is now available at Wynndel, helped to maintain the picking season.

The weather, except for a slight break towards the end of last month, has been very hot and sultry, hastening maturity of all crops.

Early plums may be ready in two weeks. Early cooking apples are now ready, but growers have been advised by their shippers to allow them to size more on account of market conditions.

Winter apples are well advanced under the present favourable growing conditions. Growers report more tonnage than was expected.

Early pears are sizing and colouring, and should be ready in two weeks time.

Tomatoes have made their appearance in small quantities, but will soon increase in volume.

Irrigation is in full swing and at present there is no shortage of water. Cover crops are growing rapidly. The second crop of alfalfa is being cut, and is rapidly being put under cover. In many instances it is lighter than the first crop. The hay meadows of the flats are still under water, but are clearing quickly. It will be early September before the hay is fit to cut.

BENVOLIN

Service in the Benvoulin United Church will be resumed next Sunday at the usual hour, 10 a.m.

Miss Isabelle Reid arrived last Wednesday from the Coast to spend a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Reid, and her sister, Mrs. F. Snowsall, of Glenmore.

There was a good attendance at the regular fortnightly meeting of the C.C.F. study club held last Thursday at Mrs. J. Tucker's. Mr. Ralph Turner gave an interesting address on two of the planks of the C.C.F. platform. Mrs. Swordsby gave a very well prepared paper on "Capitalism versus Socialism," which was most interesting and informative. Mr. T. Wilkinson spoke for some time on the money question. A general discussion on points brought up by the speakers followed.

Mr. C. E. Weeks and Mr. W. Munroe were chosen as speakers for the next meeting.

ANTS IN HOUSES

How To Get Rid Of A Seasonal Nuisance

Ants are reported from many districts in the Dominion to be particularly abundant in dwelling houses this season. Although the majority of the Canadian species of ants live in colonies or nests outdoors, they frequently cause annoyance by invading kitchens and pantries in search of food. One of the most common and troublesome species, known as the red, or Pharaoh's ant, says the Dominion Entomologist, confines itself entirely to heated buildings, such as bakeries, restaurants, houses, etc. This tiny, reddish-yellow ant had its origin in the tropics. Another species, the common large black carpenter ant, although normally an outdoor species nesting principally in decaying wood, frequently occurs in dwellings, particularly frame houses and summer cottages, and may cause injury to woodwork as well as annoyance by its presence. A third common species is the small yellowish-brown lawn ant, which nests in lawns and gardens, often entering houses in search of food.

Ants are social in their habits and live together in colonies. The majority of the ants in a colony, and the ones most commonly seen, are wingless undeveloped female workers which are incapable of reproducing their kind. Each colony also possesses one or more true females or "queens," which are responsible for the generation of new individuals. The white, helpless larvae, and pupae which develop from eggs laid by the "queen" are cared for by the workers, which may be seen transporting them to a place of safety when the nest is threatened with danger. Ants which enter dwellings will feed on many kinds of foodstuffs, but are particularly fond of sweet and fatty substances.

The most satisfactory material so far discovered for destroying ants is sodium fluoride, sold by druggists in the form of fine white powder. This powder
